

RBM Partnership to End Malaria Multi-sectoral Working Group (RBM MSWG)
Interim hybrid meeting on 30th August 2022, 15:00-17:30 CET

Join online via Zoom

<https://swisstph.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZMkdu-trD0oE9PzjOuuNWms3j80yS00X89o>

Hosted by the Global Health Campus, Chemin du Pommier 40, 1218 Le Grand-Saconnex, Geneva, Switzerland, Room Marula (L1-3) (speakers' ONLY)

Co-Chairs: Graham Alabaster & Peter Mbabazi

Coordinator: Konstantina Boutsika

Technical support: Lina Heltsche

Rapporteur: Laura Paris

Recent advances in multisectoral approaches in managing vector-borne diseases
Moving in action in a sustainable manner

Objectives of the meeting:

- Launch of the 'Comprehensive Multisectoral Action Framework - Development & Malaria'.
- Present recent work of the RBM MSWG and draw attention in increased investment for critical multisectoral actors.
- Sharing examples of successful multisectoral projects and discuss best practices.

Time (CET)	Theme	Presenter
14:30 - 15:00	Registration and welcome coffee/tea/snacks
Session 1	Introductions, objectives, launch of Framework	Chair-Graham Alabaster
15:00 - 15:10	Welcome and introduction of participants	Graham Alabaster UNHabitat & MSWG
15:10 - 15:15	Overview of agenda and objectives	Peter Mbabazi Uganda Ministry of Health & MSWG
15:15 - 16:00	Official launch of the 'Comprehensive Multisectoral Action Framework - Development & Malaria' Opening remarks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Tracey Burton, Health Implementation Support Team, UNDP (5 minutes) ▪ Graham Alabaster, Office of Executive Director, UNHabitat (5 minutes) ▪ Corine Karema, Interim CEO, RBM Partnership to End Malaria (5 minutes) ▪ 'From Framework to Practice', Erik Blas, Independent Public Health Expert Omega Raobela, Head of Malaria Programme Madagascar (30 minutes)
Session 2	Sharing examples of successful multisectoral projects	Chair- Peter Mbabazi
16:00 - 16:10	Rural context and agriculture Exploring rice intensification strategies that optimise food security, climate change and health co-benefits	Kazuki Saito, Elliott Dossou-Yovo (AfricaRice)

16:10 – 16:30	Urban context and initiatives Multi-sector engagement for public health: the Transform Freetown initiative (10 minutes) Healthy Cities, Healthy People: moving from political commitment to a framework for action (10 minutes)	Onyeka Erobu (Senior Health Advisor to Mayor Yvonne Aki-Sawyerr at Freetown, Sierra Leone) Sarah Beeching (Oshun Partnership)
16:30 – 16:40	Private & commercial Miners and the discovery of mosquito weaponry	Samuel Asiedu Agyei (AGAMal)
16:40 – 17:25	Panel discussion and Q&A on best practices and challenges to implement a multisectoral way of work in a sustainable manner <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Kazuki Saito & Elliott Dossou-Yovo ▪ Onyeka Erobu ▪ Sarah Beeching ▪ Samuel Asiedu Agyei 	Moderators Graham Alabaster Peter Mbabazi
17:25 – 17:30	Wrap-up and end of meeting	Graham Alabaster Peter Mbabazi

The sponsored participants are funded by the GlobMal project of Swiss TPH through SDC-funds. We are grateful to Global Health Campus for the generous hospitality.